1 February, 2017

The Secretariat of the Islamic Conference Youth Forum for Dialogue and Cooperation (ICYF-DC) an international institution affiliated to the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) presents its compliments to the esteemed Ministries (Relevant Government Authorities) responsible for Youth and Sports, and has the honor to present the enclosed Call for Nomination to establish Model OIC Clubs in the reputable universities of the OIC Member States.

The Model OIC (MOIC) International Academic Simulations Programme is among the fourteen youth actions adopted by the 3rd Session of the Islamic Conference of Youth and Sports Minister (5-7 October 2016, Istanbul, Republic of Turkey) under the chapter of Joint Youth Action Plan which mandates the ICYF-DC to implement approved projects in the Member States to enhance intellectual capacities of young generation and to raise awareness and promote the OIC as a leading international institution throughout the young community therein.

In this regard, ICYF-DC's endeavor to support the opening of MOIC Clubs in reputable universities of the OIC Member States as well as in eligible non-OIC countries, is crucial in enlarging the core implementation areas of MOIC project, in deepening and advancing the MOIC network in the OIC Member States and in promoting OIC activities worldwide. As a part of the joint youth action plan; the 5th edition of the Model OIC Summit will be convened in 2017 so as to reinforce one of the main purposes of the OIC-2025, namely enhancing intellectual capacities of young generation while raising awareness in regards to OIC policies and activities.

In this context, the ICYF-DC Secretariat kindly requests the Esteemed Ministries to nominate 1 (one) student-delegate who is currently enrolled in social science/law/economics/international relations as the candidate for the founder of MOIC Club by filling in and returning the attached application form, no later than 10 February 2017, to ICYF-DC Secretariat at the following address:

“5th Edition of the International Model of the Organization of the Islamic Cooperation”

Concept Paper

CONCEPT

Description: Model OIC is an academic simulation of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) that aims at educating participants about current trends in theory and practice of International relations, effective communication and multilateral diplomacy.

Vision: "Enhancing Muslim youth skills and capabilities, for the sake of revitalizing a leading Muslim Ummah."

Mission: Promoting belonging and loyalty to the Islamic Civilization and enhancing participants' intercultural skills, critical thinking as well as promoting a platform for youth, intellectuals and diplomats to meet together and discuss the problems faced by youth people.

Title: 5th Edition of International Model of the Organization of the Islamic Cooperation (5th IMOIC), a Global Summit

Main Implementing Organization: ICYF-DC

Supervising Team:

Ahmet Halit Hatip, Project Coordinator,

A) MOIC Clubs

General Information on MOIC Clubs:

1. MOIC Clubs are established by university students at research centres, Youth NGOs or universities and supervised by academicians. It is right to say that it is autonomous student's activity where students have the chance of improving their skills and capabilities.
2. There are more than 10 national Model-OIC Clubs around the OIC region, including in Yemen, Kazakhstan, Jordan, Turkey, Azerbaijan, Malaysia, Palestine, Uganda, Mali and Somalia. Thus, establishing a MOIC Club will help in developing strong network between the Universities and Youth Organizations of the OIC Member and Observer States.

Model OIC Club Activities:

- a. Simulation of OIC Summit Annually: It is a simulation conference gathering the Head of States and Governments of OIC Member States once a year to deliberate on issues with grave concern to the Organization. Hence, the simulation will be focusing on the issues concerning Member or Observer States and OIC in general with participants acting as Head of Governments.
- b. Online Diplomatic Trainings: ICYF-DC Diplomatic training team will offer MOIC Clubs online training on rules & procedures of the OIC, diplomatic skills on yearly basis
- c. Cultural Events: Cultural events are activities organized by Model OIC Clubs where youth from different cultures or path of life come together and organize some events to share their own traditions. They also benefit from socializing together.
- d. Youth Day: On this special day, the Ministry of Youth and Sports as well as other relevant youth institutions use this opportunity to identify the issues concerning youth. In this regard, seminars, workshops, Model OIC Clubs can organize cultural events in collaboration with other institutions.
- e. Academic Seminars: This is a form of education given to a particular number of students, attending from different universities. Experts interactively discuss specific topics on a variety of issues. The Academy gathers official representatives from governmental and non-governmental organizations, university representatives and academicians to deliver courses in the best possible way for the students. During seminars, interactive issues in international relations, hot topics in the OIC countries, foreign policy strategies and many more are discussed. After completion of seminars, the academy continues with trainings for International Model OIC Simulation Session. At the end of trainings, exemplary simulation of the Model OIC is organized and the most successful and active students among the participants will be selected to participate at the upcoming International Model of the Organization of the Islamic Cooperation (IMOIC).

B) 5TH IMOIC

Islamic Summit Simulation ended with resolution consisting of 63 articles and Youth Declaration.

Objectives and Goals:

4. Promoting positive Islamic image on international arena, holding different support kinds for struggle against Islamophobia and religious discrimination towards members of Muslim

- communities are among the main objectives of the IMOIC a social event for students coming from OIC Member States and beyond.. It encourages youth active in creation and establishment of intercultural and interreligious dialogue that seeking to bring together and disseminate expertise and knowledge about the life situations, aspirations and ways of expression of Muslim and non-Muslim youth. It also develops established network among the OIC Universities and Youth organizations, with the help of established MOIC clubs in all OIC Member States that will serve the idea of strengthening intercultural dialogue and provide training in the field of international diplomacy.

PARTICIPANTS:

5. Universities of Member and Observer OIC States are expected to send a delegation of 03 participants (BA and/or MA students of international affairs, Political Science or related social science fields). MOIC Clubs, established in 2017, are expected to send a delegation to report on their success on MOIC National Leagues. The local 50 participants will represent the Top Universities of Host country (TBC). The opening and closing ceremony of the conference is to be enriched by the participation of high-level local officials and international guests, consisting of leading academicians, politicians and experts. Total number of participants is to reach 170 students, who will be accompanied by the international media representatives and resource persons.

ABSTRACT:

5th International Model OIC is a unique international simulation version of the OIC. Having no analogies in the world, 05 days Conference will take place in one of the host country. (TBC) Being supervised by ICYF-DC, the representatives of the OIC General Secretariat and academicians, and supported in organization by the participants, will be divided into delegations of heads of "OIC Member States", and simulate the real life OIC diplomatic module. According to the agenda of the Conference, 05 days will be dedicated for Rules & Procedures Trainings, practical training and simulation sessions of Islamic Summit, with discussion of its real life agenda. Delegates are going to take part in the sessions design to take into consideration the interest of "REPRESENTED STATE" as well as participant's personal field of interest, in order to product possible solutions for the issues tackling the OIC. The final day will be dedicated to the plenary session, where all the delegates will come together to vote for the resolutions they were working on during the working sessions. In the Model OIC simulations, students performed as diplomats and participated in a simulated session of the OIC. Session participants concentrated on research and investigation of international issues, accompanied with debates and consultations, developing solutions to OIC countries' problems, reflected in the final resolution of the conference. In order to represent the policies of the selected state, the conference participants introduced a variety of communication and critical thinking tools, i.e. public speaking, group communication, research, policy analysis, active listening, negotiating, conflict resolution, note taking, technical writing, as well as applying all mentioned above in the frame of diplomatic rules and procedures.

During the Conference, 04 panels delivered by the eminent scholars from different OIC Member State Universities, diplomats of OIC Institutions are to take place. Event Local Organizers expected to design an interesting program for cultural activities as well. Thus the project expects to be a social event, while promoting intercultural and interreligious dialogue as well as educating young men and woman in conducting diplomacy on international level
